Decisions of the Expert Committee held on 1-11-2018

Subject: Common Course Hindi

It has been decided to restructure and modify the syllabus for the Common Course in Hindi in St. Berchmans College, Changanassery from June 2019 onwards. The modification and minor changes that have been brought in are in conformity with the broader aims and objectives stipulated by the Mahatma Gandhi University. The pattern of the redesigned curriculum for BA/BSc/BCom and BA English Model II is as follows:

BA/BSc Degree Programme

1. Semester – I Prose and One Act Plays (BCHB101) 4 Hrs (Credit - 4)
2. Semester – II Short Stories and Novel (BCHB202) 4 Hrs (Credit - 4)
3. Semester – III Poetry, Grammar and Translation (BCHB303) 5 Hrs (Credit - 4)
4. Semester – IV Drama and Long Poem (BCHB404) 5 Hrs (Credit - 4)

BCom Degree Programme

1. Semester – I Prose and Mass Media (BCHC101) 4 Hrs (Credit - 4)
2. Semester – II Poetry, Commercial Correspondence and Translation (BCHC202) 4 Hrs (Credit - 4)

BA English Model II English Common Course Hindi

1. Semester – I Drama and Communicative Hindi (BCHV101) 5 Hrs (Credit - 4)
2. Semester – II Poetry & Short Stories (BCHV202) 5 Hrs (Credit - 4)

On the one hand the syllabus under consideration offers students with the glimpses of literary development in Hindi and equip them with increased proficiency to communicate and write flawless, grammatical Hindi on the other hand. Monthly assignments, practicing sessions for creative writing in Hindi and remedial coaching will add and strengthen the existing methods of teaching. The committee unanimously recommends to implement the syllabus and submit this proposal for final concurrence of the College Academic Council.

ADD ON COURSE

BHIEX01: COMMUNICATIVE SKILLS IN HINDI

Total Hours: 36

Credit: 2

Objectives:

Language is a medium to explore, celebrate and understand diversity and variety through communication. If you want to communicate in Hindi, want to visit someone in India, want to watch Bollywood movies, or want to use Hindi slang and phrases while communicating in Hindi,. The course will pay attention to speaking and listening skills with varying degrees of emphasis. Throughout, the interactive use of the language, grammatical accuracy and cultural appropriateness will continue to be the central organizing principles. This course is oriented to improve language proficiency of learners from beginner level to intermediate level.

COURSE STRUCTURE

Module1: Sentence Structure and Greetings:

In this Module we will proceed to learn Hindi sentence structure. You will learn simple, interrogative and negative sentences. Comparison between Hindi and English phrases and sentences will help you to make your very first sentence in Hindi. For conversational drills and practice, we will learn how to greet in Hindi.

Module 2: Noun/ Pronouns and Verb 'to be':

Hindi nouns and personal pronouns (First Person, Second Person and Third Person) in this module. We will review the pronouns by using verb 'to be'. Noun and pronoun determine the gender of the verb being used in the sentence, so we will learn subject and verb agreement. By using verb 'to be' and pronouns you will introduce yourself and express your mood during this module.

Module 3: Tenses: In Hindi, just like English, we have Present, Past and Future Tenses.

We will practice by discussing your daily routine, your past habits/ hobbies and your future plans. For vocabulary you will learn different regular and irregular verbs in this lesson.

Module 4: Comparative/ Superlative and Time/ Place Expressions: Hindi language, such as: verbs - चाहना, चाहिए, सकना, पाना ,चुकना (chahna, chahiye, sakna, pana, chukna);

Emphatic - ही/भी (hi, bhi); Expression of Quantity - बहुत, बहुतज्यादा, कम, बहुतकम, कुछ/ कोई
(Bahut, bahutjyada, kum, bahutkum, kuch/ koi)

Discuss how to make comparison between two things, persons or ideas. We will also learn superlatives here. The second half of this lesson will focus on time and a place expression, which means you, will learn to give directions, tell and ask time.
