Artists find hope at Kashmir's lone private art Gallery

(September 11, 2023)

Mahatta Art Gallery, formerly a photo studio, is Srinagar's only private art gallery and one of the very few refuges for the budding artists of Kashmir to display their works in the heart of the summer capital. Once a workshop for developing Photographs clicked by the photographers at Mahatta, the building — standing on the banks of river Jhelum — has been converted into an art gallery, research centre, a museum, a photo lab, and a café.

Cowshed turned into museum to help revive Chitrakathi Folk art in Maharashtra

(September 12, 2023)

In a novel initiative, a folk artist has converted his cowshed into a museum in a bid to preserve the dying folk art form of Chitrakathi being practised by the Thakar Adivasi Community in Maharashtra's Konkan region. The museum, set up in Kudal village of Sindhudurg by folk artist Parshuram Gangavane, who won the Padma Shri award in 2021 for reviving the 500-year-old Chitrakathi art form, has been attracting several Researchers, students and tourists. Chitrakathi is a combination of art and storytelling.

‘Will learn from this’: Neeraj shifts focus to recovery and Asian Games after Diamond League Finals miss

(September 16, 2023)

Neeraj Chopra has set such lofty standards for himself that even a second-place finish in the Diamond League Finals seems like a disappointment. It wasn't Neeraj's day in Eugene on Saturday as he failed to retain his Diamond League title (with a best effort of 83.80m), finishing second behind Czech power thrower Jakub Vadlejch.

How dhanushya-baan, fancy dress contests at Jatras kickstarted archery trend in Maharashtra

(September 18,2023)

It's of a young girl, no more than six or seven years old. Dressed ostensibly like Rani Lakshmi Bai. Holding up a bow with her left hand and pulling an arrow with her right. Eyes locked on the target. Body, though awkwardly positioned, still as a rock. Ready to shoot.
